- Historical Gems: Explore the Larco Museum's pre-Columbian artifacts and the Huaca Pucllana pyramid.
- Colonial Splendor: Visit Lima's Historic Center, including Plaza Mayor, Lima Cathedral, and San Francisco Catacombs.
- Nature and Adventure: Experience the Ballestas Islands, Huacachina Oasis, and a Pisco vineyard.

Summary

This 2-day package offers a unique blend of history, culture, and adventure.

On Day 1, dive into Lima's rich heritage. Begin at the Larco Museum, showcasing ancient Peruvian art and artifacts, then visit the Huaca Pucllana, a pre-Inca adobe pyramid in Miraflores. Continue to Lima's Historical Center to admire the Plaza Mayor, the impressive Lima Cathedral, and the mysterious San Francisco Catacombs, a testament to colonial and religious history.

On Day 2, embark on an early morning adventure at 4:30 a.m. for a full-day tour outside Lima. Start with a boat trip to the Ballestas Islands, home to incredible marine wildlife, then travel to the desert oasis of Huacachina for thrilling dune buggy rides or sandboarding. Conclude the day at a local vineyard, enjoying a guided Pisco tasting and learning about its traditional production methods. Return to Lima by early evening, allowing time to unwind.

This package ensures a seamless and unforgettable experience.
