Tour Description

This 6-day journey offers an immersive introduction to the heart of the former Inca Empire, combining Peru's most celebrated cultural, historical, and natural attractions. Beginning in Cusco, the ancient capital of the Incas, travelers will discover a fascinating city where impressive archaeological remains coexist with elegant colonial architecture, creating one of the most unique urban landscapes in South America.

The adventure continues through the Sacred Valley of the Incas, a region renowned for its dramatic mountain scenery, traditional Andean communities, and remarkable archaeological sites. Explore ancient agricultural terraces, vibrant local markets, living Inca towns, and centuries-old traditions that continue to shape daily life in the Andes. Along the way, enjoy breathtaking views of snow-capped peaks, fertile valleys, and the winding Urubamba River.

The highlight of the journey is the unforgettable visit to Machu Picchu, one of the New Seven Wonders of the World and the most iconic archaeological site in South America. Travel through spectacular mountain landscapes aboard a scenic train before exploring the citadel with an expert guide, uncovering the history, mysteries, and engineering achievements of the Inca civilization. The experience is further enhanced with access to Huayna Picchu, offering a unique perspective and unforgettable panoramic views of the sanctuary below.

Carefully designed to balance guided exploration with free time, this itinerary is ideal for travelers seeking an authentic and enriching experience, combining history, culture, nature, and some of the most extraordinary landscapes Peru has to offer.
