Summary

This tour is perfect for travelers who want to experience the historic center of Lima like a local. Using public transport, visitors will be taken on a journey through time and space to explore the best that Lima has to offer.

The tour begins with visits to two stunning colonial convents, each over 400 years old. These incredible buildings are adorned with intricate works of art, carved woodwork, and beautiful gardens that will transport visitors to another world. Exploring these ancient sites, guests will learn about the fascinating history of Lima and get a sense of the city's rich cultural heritage.

In addition to the convents, the tour includes a visit to the Plaza Mayor in Lima, one of the oldest squares on the continent. Surrounded by impressive buildings, this historic square is a testament to the city's past and a vibrant hub of activity in the present. As guests walk through this beautiful space, they'll experience the lively energy of the city and get a true taste of what makes Lima so special.
