Tour Description

Highlights:

- Experience a delightful morning/ afternoon with friends.
- Explore the beauty of Lima on a scenic bike ride through Miraflores, San Isidro, and Barranco.
- Uncover the hidden treasures of this vibrant city and embrace its rich history and natural wonders along the way.

Summary:

The experience begins at Terrua Café (Pasaje Tello 163, Miraflores), a centrally located and easy-to-find meeting point. After a short safety briefing and basic instructions, we'll begin our bike ride. Our first stop will be the Huaca Pucllana, a remarkable pre Incan archaeological site in the heart of Miraflores. We'll then head to El Olivar Park in San Isidro, known for its peaceful atmosphere and centuries-old olive trees. Next, we'll ride along the Miraflores boardwalk, enjoying spectacular ocean views, before finishing in Barranco, Lima's most bohemian and artistic district.

A great way to discover the city, get some fresh air, and connect with Lima's history and natural beauty.
