Summary:

Embark on an exhilarating adventure tailor-made for nature enthusiasts and hiking aficionados as you journey to the awe-inspiring Humantay Snowcapped Mountain and its mesmerizing turquoise lake. Situated amidst the majestic Andean landscapes, this experience promises an unforgettable exploration of natural wonders and breathtaking scenery.

Your day begins with an early 4:30 a.m. pickup from your hotel, setting the stage for a thrilling expedition. A scenic 3-hour drive takes you to Mollepata, where a delightful breakfast awaits, energizing you for the day ahead. From Mollepata, you'll continue your journey, immersing yourself in the stunning vistas of the Andes as you make your way to Soraypampa.

At Soraypampa, situated at an impressive elevation of 4200 meters, your adventure truly begins. Embark on a captivating 1.5-hour hike through the rugged terrain, guided by the towering peaks of Salkantay and Humantay. Along the way, marvel at the natural beauty of the landscape, with its rugged rock formations, cascading waterfalls, and diverse flora and fauna.

As you ascend to Humantay Lake, the breathtaking beauty of this natural wonder unfolds before you. The pristine turquoise waters, framed by the towering peaks and lush greenery, create a scene of unparalleled serenity and tranquility. Take your time to soak in the awe-inspiring vistas, capturing stunning photographs and creating memories that will last a lifetime.

After immersing yourself in the beauty of Humantay Lake, begin your descent back to Soraypampa, where a sumptuous buffet lunch awaits. Enjoy a well-deserved break, savoring delicious local cuisine amidst the spectacular mountain scenery. As the day draws to a close, embark on the journey back to Cusco, arriving around 6 p.m., you'll carry with you cherished memories of a day filled with adventure, exploration, and the natural beauty of the Andean highlands.
