Tour Description

Once at the meeting point, a safety briefing will be given for this experience, you will discover the city on two wheels starting in the district of Miraflores, here you will have the first experience of tasting a Peruvian specialty coffee in Terrua Café. Then, you will take your bikes and start this adventure on two wheels, you will go to Barranco where you will taste the classic ham sandwich of the country, in one of the oldest bars of the city, then you will taste a great fruit ice cream and continue your route to the next point. On the way you will discover the streets of Lima in a new way, until you reach the Surquillo Market, where we will taste some fruits and discover some ingredients of our amazing Peruvian gastronomy. Finishing at the market, you will take the bike again to go to the next point where you will taste the classic Choritos a la Chalaca, after tasting this dish we will return to our starting point.
