Tour Description

Highlights:

- Discover the rich flavors and culture of this beautiful city.
- Scenic bike ride through the vibrant neighborhoods of Miraflores, Barranco and Surquillo.
- Along the way, savor delicious bites of traditional Peruvian cuisine such as ceviche and local fruits.

Summary:

We'll meet at the cozy Terrua Café, located at Pasaje Tello 163 in Miraflores, a centrally located and welcoming spot, perfect for starting the day. After a short safety briefing and tour introduction, you'll enjoy a cup of some of Lima's best specialty coffee, sourced from high-quality Peruvian beans.

Once we've had our coffee, we'll begin our bike ride through the vibrant neighborhoods of Miraflores, Barranco, and Surquillo. Throughout the tour, we'll make several stops to taste a selection of Peruvian treats from fresh tropical fruits at a local market, to traditional street snacks, refreshing drinks, and other delicious surprises that showcase Lima's culinary culture.

Beyond the food, this tour offers a unique way to see Lima's contrasts: modern architecture and oceanfront parks, colorful street art, historic streets, and the bohemian spirit of Barranco.

It's a well rounded experience for those who want to discover Lima through its sights, its flavors, and its local charm.
